House of Geneviève
The Collection Guide

I Welcome

Every bespoke collection begins with a conversation.

Thank you for considering House of Geneviève.

Choosing your wedding stationery is about more than selecting beautiful paper—it's about creating the first impression of your celebration and a keepsake you'll treasure long after the day has passed.

This guide offers an introduction to the investment behind bespoke stationery, helping you understand what shapes each collection and what you can expect when creating something uniquely yours.

I hope it provides clarity and inspiration as you begin your journey.

With warmest wishes,

Bronwyn

Why Bespoke?

Choosing bespoke means creating something designed exclusively for your celebration.

Every detail is thoughtfully considered, every element carefully curated and every collection created to reflect your story—resulting in stationery that's beautifully personal from beginning to end.

“The most meaningful details are never rushed. They are thoughtfully imagined, carefully crafted and lovingly brought to life.”

III

Understanding Your Investment

“Every collection is as individual as the celebration it’s created for.”

Rather than offering fixed packages, every proposal is tailored to your wedding.

Your investment is shaped by a number of carefully considered details, including:

- Guest numbers
- The pieces included within your suite
- Paper stock
- Print finish
- Embellishments
- Venue illustrations
- Wax seals, ribbons and luxury finishing touches
- Wedding day stationery

The result is a collection that's designed entirely around your vision, rather than a package that asks you to compromise.

Example Collections

“Beautiful stationery isn’t simply about paper and ink. It’s about creating the first impression of a celebration your guests will never forget.”

VII Frequently Asked Questions

Is there a minimum order?

Yes. A minimum order of 25 units applies to all printed stationery items, excluding signage. This minimum quantity applies to each order placed throughout your stationery journey, whether you're ordering invitations or wedding day stationery.

Can you work within our budget?

Absolutely. Every collection is tailored to your celebration, and I'll always recommend materials, print finishes and design details that make the most of your investment while remaining true to your vision.

Can we add pieces later?

Absolutely. Many couples begin with their invitation suite before adding wedding day stationery or thank you cards as their plans come together. Every piece is thoughtfully designed to complement your original collection.

Do you offer samples?

Yes. Once your booking is confirmed, you'll receive a curated sample box featuring your chosen cardstock and carefully selected elements inspired by your collection. Please note that signage, foiling and letterpress samples are not included.

Do you offer payment plans?

Yes. Flexible payment options are available, including three instalments via your PayPal invoice or monthly payments over 6 or 12 months. To ensure your collection stays on schedule, each stage must be paid in full before production begins.

How do we secure our booking?

Once you're ready to proceed, simply sign your contract and pay your booking fee to reserve your wedding date.

From there, we'll begin creating your bespoke stationery collection.

VIII Begin your Journey

“Every beautiful celebration begins with a story.”

When you're ready, I'd be delighted to create a stationery collection that reflects yours.

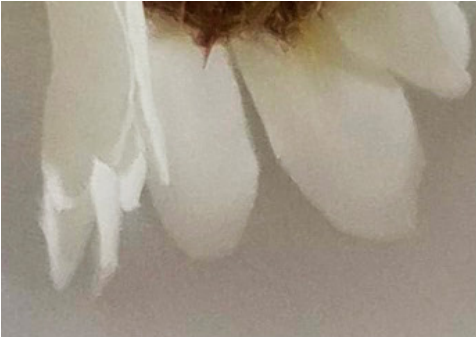

Let's Begin

Share your wedding date, venue and inspiration, and I'll be in touch to arrange your complimentary consultation.

With warmest wishes,

Bronwyn
